PORTLAND CLUBS WILL NOT TRIFLE WITH LAW

INTRODUCANTS WILL BE TAHOE AFTER JANUARY 1. IS ANNOUNCEMENT.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 1.—As indicating the attitude of the different clubs in Portland toward the prohibition law, the Press club will absolutely comply with the law in every particular.

W. T. Chapman, secretary of the Portland lodge, Fraternal Order of Eagles, said: "The Eagles will maintain their club rooms at the Astor headquarters. Third and Madison streets, and will endeavor to make them as attractive to members as possible. There will be strict compliance with the law, and no bootlegger will do business here."

The Loyal Order of Moose, with headquarters in the Royal building, between Park and Broadway on Morrison street, will sell every drop of liquor that may be in stock on Wednesday night, December 23, and the members of the board are emphatic in declaring that there will be strict compliance with the law, and strict detection and expulsion of any member or outsider endeavoring in any way to violate the law.

"We expect to have no trouble and to keep our clubhouse attractive without violation of the law," said P. L. Proctor, secretary. "Most of our members coming here now do not patronize the club except to buy cigars and soft drinks. There will be no experiments allowed in possible evasions of the law. The Loyal Order of Moose is loyal to the will of the people."

5 of Crew Missing

ROAD TO BUILD FEEDERS.

Western Pacific to Spend $200,000.00 When Reelers 12th Geo.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—C. M. Levy, general manager of the Western Pacific railroad, announced here that the road would emerge from its receivership with means provided for the construction of branch lines at a cost aggregating approximately $200,000.00. Although he did not indicate where the proposed feeders would extend, he said that the branches would be constructed primarily for the development of the freight business.

The present earnings of the road are the best in its history," said Mr. Levy.

Captain Daniel Fowers of Maryville, Pa., said to have made 2900 voyages on the Susquehanna river as a raftsmen.

RAYMOND WYER RESIGNS FROM HACKLEY GALLERY

RAYMOND WYER, director of the Hackley Art Gallery of this city, has resigned his place, after putting this city on the art map of the world in the four years of the museum's career. He announced his intention to retire at the expiration of his contract as a protest against the reactionary attitude of certain members of the Muskegon board of education, who, he says, take no interest in art, but who hold the balance of power and use it to the detriment of the gallery.

A large sum of money was left by the late Charles H. Hackley, Muskegon's famous multimillionaire lumberman, for the purchase of a permanent collection of paintings for the city; his total bequest to the municipality amounting to nearly $5,000,000. The services of Mr. Wyer were obtained in England, and he brought together a number of paintings and other works of art, forming the nucleus of a permanent collection which has been favorably commented upon by art authorities in all parts of the civilized world.

Despite his abilities and the efforts made here to retain them, however, Mr. Wyer's service will be lost to Muskegon and Michigan, for he refuses to be identified with an institution when it entails the sacrifice of his convictions. Besides, he says, England may need him in the trenches at the front.

have died in the Hamilton country in Grant county and ranchers expect that many more will be lost before relief is found. The hay crop in this vicinity was short this season and when the bad weather made feeding impossible ranchers gave up in despair as their cattle starved.

The condition has so affected the cattle market that the prices are dropping, much cows being offered for as low as $4 a head. Cattlemen in other parts of this district also are having great trouble in feeding because of the snow and cold.

Chicken Pot Pie

The Chef's Favorite

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Journal Cooking School Magazine.

Some folks think that only "colored mummies" can cook chicken, but a trial of this famous chicken pot pie disproves that assertion. Every member of the family will thoroughly enjoy it.

K C Chicken Pot Pie, Baked Dampings

One fowl cut in joints; 1/2 cup flour; 1/2 teaspoon salt; black pepper; 2 cups flour; 3 level tablespoons K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/2 cup shortening; milk or cream.

Cover the fowl with boiling water and let simmer until tender, then remove to a baking dish. Mix the 1/2 cup flour, salt and black pepper with cold water to a smooth paste and use to thicken the broth. Remove the fat from the top of the broth if necessary before adding the thickening. Pour this gravy over the fowl, until it is nearly covered, and reserve the rest to serve apart. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt, three times; into this work the shortening and use cream or milk to make a dough, less stiff than for biscuits. Pat this by spoonfuls over the fowl in the dish, which it should rest upon and completely cover. Let bake about 35 minutes.

When young, tender chickens are served, this presents a most satisfactory way of serving old fowls. You can grind in this manner a more appetizing than when served as a stew. Try this and the 99 other delicious recipes in the K C Cook's Book, a copy of which may be secured free by sending the enclosed certificate packed in the 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the Javara Mfg. Co., Chicago.

Coffee

The essence of coffee is hidden in the bean. You can't see it.

For Schilling's Best we select the beans with the most good flavor; clean them, blend them, roast them just right, grind them into even particles and take-out the bitterish chaff. Then we pack the coffee into airtight tins.

Sounds easy, doesn't it? It has taken many years to do it right!
